

CONTEMPORARY SHOW

This year the All-Campus Contemporary Showcase "Metamorphosis" will be held at the Capitol Theatre. Students from Park City, Utah County, and Salt Lake City Campuses are cleaning choreography and preparing for their performances. For some of our newer students this may be their first time to perform on the Capitol Theater stage!

"Because the Capitol Theatre is the home of Ballet West, it always feels really special to perform there, even in a student production." Says Sophia, one of our advanced students.

You can catch all of our contemporary students, including our Contemporary Performing Group, Current, and Trainees on April 18th and 19th!

SNOW WHITE NEWS

As you know, Snow White opens next week at Capitol Theatre! There are some very exciting things happening with this production of Snow White. Starting on Thursday of next week film crews will spend 2 days, 5 performances, and over 8 hours filming the dancers. The recording will be on KSL TV on Christmas and New Years! This is such an exciting opportunity for these dancers and a fun process to be part of. All of this happens prior to performing 3 shows in Salt Lake City. Tickets are still available for the Salt Lake City performances. Click to Purchase tickets.

Next the Second Company and student dancers take Snow White on tour to the Austad Auditorium at the Browning Center of Weber State University in Ogden May 5th for 1 student performance, and 1 evening performance. There are still great seats available for the Ogden Tour, though they are selling quickly! Get yours before they are all gone. Purchase tickets here.
