

BW IN THE NEWS

Ballet West company Principal Dancer, Katlyn Addison was recently featured in Pointe Magazine and the Toronto Star.

Toronto native, Katlyn is obviously a breathtaking ballerina, but did you know she is also a talented choreographer? Katlyn has choreographed pieces for Ballet West in past seasons. She recently returned to Toronto to choreograph for a ballet company there.

You can read about Katlyn and her choreography here.

We are so excited to join in celebrating Katlyn Addison as a talented choreographer. She has always been a mentor who is quick to give encouragement and support to our academy students.

THANK YOU, PARENTS!

Your students have grown so much this year! And we have loved being a part of it. They have performed in inspiring Winter and Spring Showcase and worked hard in classes day after day. They couldn't have accomplished so much without your support. We are so thankful to have such amazing students, and parents who are committed to their progress and growth in this beautiful artform!

We officially end our season Saturday, May 27th. We will continue to check in with a monthly newsletter throughout the summer. We look forward to seeing you, our incredible BWA family in summer camps and intensives and again in the fall!

FATHER'S DAY

Looking to share dance with your father or your child this Father's Day? Look no further!

Dance through the holiday with Ballet West Principal dancer and father-of-two, Adrian Fry, as he guides families through a beginner ballet class in celebration of Father's Day. This class is open to the public, for people of all ages.

Ballet West's Father's Day Dance Class will take place on Father's Day, Sunday June 18, from 10-11am at the Ballet Centre Campus in Downtown Salt Lake City, in Studio A.

We encourage our Academy dancers to bring an important man in their life with them to this movement class that includes partner activities and basic, introductory ballet steps. Dancers and their Father's Day guests are welcome to attend in socks or ballet slippers, and athletic attire they can move in. Tickets for this event are $25 for a family of 2, and $35 for a family of 3 or more.
